

National programmes on immigration

Positions of PSOE, PP, Sumar and Vox · 2025

Socialist Party (PSOE)

Orderly, humanitarian migration, with legal pathways, international cooperation and reform of the Immigration Regulations.

Regularisation and labour-market and social integration of migrants.

A National Integration and Coexistence Plan, with resources for education and employment.

People’s Party (PP)

A single authority responsible for migration.

Employment as the main entry pathway: merit-based visas for job vacancies.

Firm borders and action against irregular immigration, including a stronger Frontex.

Ending mass regularisations; annual quotas by country and sector.

Sumar

Opposition to discriminatory frameworks: immigration does not equal crime.

Opposition to the European Migration Pact.

Immediate exceptional regularisation of approximately 500,000 people.

Vox

Immediate, prioritised expulsion of irregular migrants and legal residents who commit serious crimes or reoffend.

Removal of social assistance, subsidies and benefits for irregular migrants and NGOs involved in rescue or migration assistance.

Legal reform to prevent immigration and asylum fraud.
